Baseball Dying? Don't Believe It; Cards Fill L.R. Park

Every night of the regular season I tune in on the St. Louis Cardinals' radio network, so I was aware that the Cards and the Kansas City Royals of the American League were to play an exhibition game this past Sunday in Little Rock, whose minor league club is an associate in the Cardinal farm system.

But I had no intention of seeing the Little Rock game, because (1) I distrust no-count exhibition games in general, figuring management is holding out its top talent to prepare for the opening of the regular season; and (2) I had read in the papers that Winder Field was already sold out, meaning that if I went I faced a stand-up afternoon.

But our Pod Rogers was hell-bent to see the game, disliked the idea of a roundtrip all by himself—and finally talked me into going.

It was a relatively painless trip, but I'll tell you this: I had never seen Kansas City play before, but the Cardinal lineup has so many new faces I felt both teams were strangers.

So it was a matter of small consequence when Kansas City took a 2-to-1 lead in the first inning, improved its position almost every inning—and wound up thrashing the Cardinals 13 to 5.

If you think baseball is dying, come again. The pro-St. Louis crowd filled Winder Field's stands and spilled out on an adjoining grassy hilltop—6,711 all told, as big as some major league crowds on a poor day.

Kansas City played like the major league club that it is, but the Cards looked like sand-lotters—mainly because they tried out three new pitchers. That figured. They were saving Bob Gibson and Steve Carlton for the opening of the regular season this week.

But I did get to see Lou Brock and other field and batting stars. After a couple of bad seasons, however, St. Louis is obviously shaking up the roster every Winter in an effort to regain its championship stride.

In baseball, as in every walk of life, you can expect an occasional disaster. But Sunday's disaster won't affect my radio schedule. I'll still be listening to the Cardinal network when the regular season opens this week.

Luther B. Tooley, former manager of Radio Station KXAR, is in town for a couple of days' fishing with Vic Cobb, his former partner in a radio sales and repair shop on S. Walnut St.

They went to the Narrows first, with little luck, but now are trying out Millwood, which Luther says has a hot reputation all over Texas—deservedly so.

Fulbright Is Linked to Involvement

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Charles Bernard of Earle, Republican party state chairman, says Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., "bears great responsibility for the mistake of our deep involvement in Southeast Asia."

Bernard called a news conference Saturday to respond to Fulbright's statement that President Nixon, as commander-in-chief, was accountable for the My Lai incident.

"Sen. Fulbright has a very short memory," Bernard said, "and I suspect conveniently so."

He said Fulbright had "supported vigorously" the SEATO Alliance that involved the United States in the defense of Southeast Asia in 1955 and that, as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, had secured enactment of the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin Resolution that led to a major commitment of American troops in Vietnam.

China Sends More Troops Into Laos

WASHINGTON (AP)—China has sent another 4,000 to 6,000 troops into Northern Laos in recent months, Pentagon sources report.

The sources estimate Peking's military strength there has risen to between 18,000 and 20,000 men, about double last year's number.

U.S. officials said it appeared the reinforcements were intended mainly to beef up protection for Chinese engineer troops working on a major road project leading from South China's Yunnan Province toward the Mekong River and for defense of the road itself.

Among other things, the Red Chinese were said to have positioned large anti-aircraft guns and to have introduced new radar for surveillance and warning.

U.S. military analysts said they doubt the manpower buildup had any connection with

Egypt Plan to Reopen Canal Is Rejected

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israeli Premier Golda Meir has rejected Egypt's offer to reopen the Suez Canal in exchange for an Israeli withdrawal from the banks of the waterway.

She also reiterated her government's determination to retain the Golan Heights, Sharm el Sheikh, the Gaza Strip and the Arab sector of Jerusalem.

Addressing a national conference of her ruling Labor party Sunday night, Mrs. Meir avoided stating specific terms for reopening the waterway but repeated her offer Feb. 9 to hold talks with the Egyptians on arrangements to reopen the canal.

Sources close to the Israeli Cabinet said Jerusalem might once again put forward Defense Minister Moshe Dayan's proposal for both Israeli and Egyptian forces to pull back from the canal in conjunction with its reopening.

Sadat's proposal called for only the Israelis to withdraw, with Egyptian troops replacing them on the east bank of the canal.

Saying that April "is the month which shall decide between a solution and war," Sadat warned Israel to make a prompt reply to his proposal to risk renewed fighting.

Mrs. Meir told her party: "Anyone who proposes Israeli agreement to the opening of the canal as a lever to obtain total Israeli withdrawal from Sinai and from Gaza will certainly

All Agree That Gov. Bumpers Got What He Wanted From Assembly

By ROBERT SHAW

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—"He's a stubborn cuss, but he knows how to work with the legislature," said one legislator privately of Gov. Dale Bumpers while trying to assess the governor's performance in the 68th General Assembly.

Other legislators tend to agree. Unyielding at times, compromising at others, Bumpers clearly got most of what he wanted in some form or another out of the assembly that went home to a two-week recess Friday and will not come back except to formally adjourn sine die barring the discovery of mechanical or procedural errors that will require legislative correction.

On the basis of his record, Bumpers dominated the legislature — although some of his

Nixon Makes No Move Speed Review of the Sentence of Calley

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP)—President Nixon has made no move to speed military review of the life sentence given Lt. William L. Calley Jr. for murdering 22 civilians at My Lai, aides said today.

They reported the chief executive, who twice last week intervened in the Calley case, believed the review should proceed through normal channels at its deliberate pace.

At the same time, the sources said, Nixon would have no objection if the Pentagon expedited the process through such mechanical acts as providing additional stenographers to prepare the full court-martial record. It must be completed before the case can reach the first level of review—by legal officers at Ft. Benning, Ga., where Calley was tried.

John D. Ehrlichman, a top Nixon assistant, told newsmen Saturday that completing the trial record was expected to take 30 to 60 days. He declined to speculate on how many months would be involved in completing the full review.

Nixon announced Saturday he would review and act on the Calley case once it has moved through the full military review.

Calley could be declared innocent and his sentence set aside at any point in the multi-level process, which would end the matter before it reached Nixon's desk.

On Thursday, Nixon first intervened on Calley's behalf, ordering that he be released from

Enemy Hits Outpost for 5th Time

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—North Vietnamese troops attacked a remote government outpost in the central highlands for the fifth straight day but once again were thrown back with heavy losses, South Vietnamese sources reported.

The sources claimed 287 of the enemy were killed in the assault Sunday on Fire Base 6, in the region 300 miles north of Saigon. Government losses were put at two killed and 20 wounded.

Most of the enemy casualties were inflicted by heavy air strikes and artillery that have pounded the area constantly since fighting broke out there early Wednesday. U.S. B52 bombers have dropped more than 100 tons of explosives around the base, trying to blunt the North Vietnamese assault.

The North Vietnamese overran the base on Wednesday, driving out a South Vietnamese battalion. But government forces recaptured it the next day.

South Vietnamese military sources said more than 1,800 North Vietnamese have been killed in the fighting for the artillery base, while government casualties total 70 killed and 124 wounded. Five Americans also have been killed and one is missing.

Some military observers question the casualty figures. They say air and artillery action account for most of the enemy casualties, and no accurate count is possible. And South Vietnamese casualties are believed higher than stated; earlier unofficial reports said more than 100 Saigon men were killed and at least that many wounded on Wednesday.

The U.S. Command reported that enemy sappers broke through the perimeter of the old U.S. 4th Infantry Division base at Camp Radcliff, killed two Americans, wounded two and damaged 10 vehicles.

Radcliff, about 250 miles northeast of Saigon, has been a ghost camp since the 4th Division left Vietnam last December, but the 173rd Airborne Brigade maintains a guard around the perimeter to protect the buildings and equipment left behind.

Enemy gunners hit the big Da Nang Air Base early today with less than 15 rockets. It was the second shelling there in a week, but the Command said no casualties or damage were reported.

A spokesman said one American was wounded Sunday when a UH1 Huey helicopter was shot down and destroyed 15 miles southwest of Hue. This brought to 4,398 the total of U.S. choppers reported lost in the war.

Americans on Jet Scuffle With Police

LONDON (AP)—Two Americans scuffled with anti-hijack marshals aboard a jetliner from Boston to London today and were arrested when the Boeing 707 landed safely in London.

Some of the 48 passengers aboard said they thought the men were trying to hijack the plane. But a spokesman for the airline, Pan American, said there had been no attempt to commandeer the aircraft.

The spokesman said one passenger, about 50 years old, began acting in an unseemly manner, shouting that he had a gun. He did not leave his seat.

Pullout Schedule Will Spur Debate Over the Forces to Remain

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon's Vietnam pullout announcement Wednesday seems certain to point toward the end of massive U.S. troop involvement in Indochina and spur debate over what American forces should remain beyond 1972, a presidential election year.

While Nixon gave no word over the weekend on the period to be covered by his announcement, even a withdrawal timetable spanning just a few months will be followed promptly in Washington by unofficial projections of troop counts by 1972.

High administration sources, known to be concerned over a crescendo of criticism of their Vietnam policy, have encouraged speculation the U.S. contingent in South Vietnam—now about 300,000—will be down below 50,000 by the end of next

Bid to Resume School Prayer Is Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP)—A New Jersey school board failed 7 to 2 today in the Supreme Court in a bid to resume prayer reading in public school.

The Netcong, N.J., board had contended the daily reading in its local high school was constitutional because students and teachers attended on a voluntary basis and the state did not select the prayer to be said.

In February 1970, Superior Court Judge Joseph H. Stamler ruled the program in violation of the First Amendment's ban on government establishment of religion. The New Jersey Supreme court affirmed his judgment unanimously last November.

The prayers were chosen from the Congressional Record and said a few minutes before the start of classes. The reader was permitted to add his own "thought for the day." About two-thirds of the students in the Netcong High School attended.

The high court rejected the appeal over a dissent by Justices Potter Stewart and Byron R. White, who favored a hearing.

In 1962 and 1963 the court prohibited official prayer programs including saying of The Lord's Prayer and Bible reading in the public schools.

The New Jersey Supreme Court said the Netcong program was essentially the same as those disapproved then.

The Netcong board needed a minimum of four approving votes to be heard. Thus, the appeal failed by two votes.

Limits Power to Punish Small Gamblers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court limited today the federal government's power to punish small-time gamblers.

In an 8-0 ruling, Justice Thurgood Marshall said the Federal Travel Act, which prohibits interstate travel to further certain criminal activity, cannot be used to prosecute two lottery operators in Florida simply because some of the bettors came from Georgia.

Marshall noted the law was aimed primarily at organized crime and at people who reside in one state while operating illegal activities in another.

The Justice Department had asked the court to permit prosecution under the federal law whenever an operator of a lottery or another illegal establishment can reasonably foresee that customers will cross state lines to patronize his operation.

The decision reversed convictions of James W. Lewis and Mary Lee Williams of Yulee, Fla., a small town a few miles south of the Georgia line. Lewis had been sentenced to five years in prison and Williams to three years. The convictions arose from their admitted operation of a lottery, or numbers, game.

Marshall said there was no evidence that they crossed state lines at any time in connection with the operation. "We are also unable to conclude that conducting a gambling operation frequented by out-of-state bettors, by itself, violates the act."

An expansion of the law could over-extend federal police resources and transform relatively minor state offenses into federal felonies, Marshall said.

Thinks U.S. Meddling in Asian Affairs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Adlai Stevenson, saying the United States appears to be meddling in South Vietnam's politics, asked Congress today to order a hands-off policy.

The Illinois Democrat said American military involvement seems to give U.S. political support to the Thieu-Ky regime and weight the coming August elections in their favor.

In addition, he said, a U.S. civilian agency, CORDS, has been reported to turn over the results of a monthly nationwide Vietnamese opinion poll to President Thieu; a U.S. Information Agency official has been quoted as saying USIA aids the Vietnamese government in reaching the "electorate;" and the South Vietnamese press has claimed and the American Embassy in Saigon denied that Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker last year pledged support for the present regime.

Stevenson asked Congress to pass a resolution setting up a 10-member committee to watch over American involvement in the August House elections and the October presidential elections.

He said that up to 1,500 trucks remain in operation along the Ho Chi Minh trail.

Chinese government warnings during the recent U.S.-supported South Vietnamese drive against North Vietnamese supply routes in the Laotian Panhandle.

Rather, the Chinese road construction through northern Laos seems to have long range implications for the security of Thailand and Burma, they said.

Both countries are considered targets for Red Chinese-backed guerrilla insurgency. Thai officials long have been worried that a still-limited insurgency movement in Northeast Thailand adjoining Laos, might grow to serious proportions with Chinese and North Vietnamese help.

Chinese road building in northern Laos began several years ago under an agreement with Laos.

If Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma has had second thoughts about the Chinese project, there seems little he can do about it.

He would be reluctant to antagonize his nation's huge neighbor to the north, especially with North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao troops already controlling much of Laos and pressing the Lao army in several areas.

The reinforcement of Chinese troops along what some officials here are beginning to call the Mao Tse Tung trail suggests the important Peking attaches to the project and possibly some concern that U.S. air power might be turned against it.

Eavesdropping Issue Upheld by Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court upheld 6 to 3 today the rigging of undercover agents with hidden radio transmitters to snare unsuspecting narcotics violators.

The decision, in a case that has troubled the court for almost two years, sustains the Justice Department and gives electronic surveillance a major legal thrust forward.

No one, said Justice Byron R. White, has a right to expect that a person with whom he is conversing will not tell the police all about it. By the same token, White said in the court's principal opinion, a defendant has no right to bar evidence obtained by police from an informer who carried hidden radio transmitters.

The ruling authorizes this eavesdropping without search warrants. All that the Constitution requires, White said, is that the informer give his consent to police to have the conversation used.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justices Potter Stewart and Harry A. Blackmun joined in White's opinion. Justices Hugo L. Black and William J. Brennan Jr. concurred.

Justices William O. Douglas, John M. Harlan and Thurgood Marshall filed dissents.

The case, pending in the court since mid-1969, concerned James A. White, a Chicago man convicted in 1966 of narcotics violations and sentenced to 25 years in prison.

Harvey Jackson, an informer, had been outfitted with a concealed radio transmitter before White came to his home. An agent concealed in a kitchen closet and a second agent outside the house using a radio receiver overheard several conversations between the two men.

Teacher Loses Court Decision

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court upheld today a Sebastian County Circuit Court decision affirming the Fort Smith Special School District decision to not renew the contract of Mrs. Irmagard K. Corbin.

Mrs. Corbin, wife of Chris D. Corbin, the superintendent of schools in Fort Smith, was employed as an elementary teacher for a period set out in the contract from Aug. 25, 1969, to May 29, 1970.

On June 1, 1970, the board notified Mrs. Corbin of its intent not to re-employ her. The board cited a policy statement it had adopted Jan. 26, 1970 to the effect that the spouse of the superintendent, assistant superintendent and director of finance and business affairs would not be employed in any capacity by the Fort Smith schools.

The Supreme Court also affirmed the decision by Chancellor John T. Jernigan of Little Rock granting a summary judgment against a suit filed by Rose City Property Owners Association.

The association had filed suit against Matthews Co., Southwest Realty Co. Inc. and Delta Lawn Builders Inc. seeking an injunction to restrain the firms from constructing allegedly substandard homes in the Delta Lawn Subdivision of North Little Rock.

The suit sought damages of $750,000. Jernigan granted the summary judgment requested by the three firms after considering the pleadings and exhibits and the association appealed.

Associate Justice John A. Fogleman said in the Supreme Court opinion that the question "is wholly dependent upon the plats, documents and admissions contained in the record before the chancellor" but none of them was abstracted.

"It is always with extreme reluctance that we affirm a case for noncompliance with the abstracting requirements clearly set out in (the court's) Rule 9," Fogleman said. "In this case, we have no choice in the matter, because the issues and appellant's arguments thereon are wholly incompressible without abstracts of these important parts of the record."

About once every 360 years, on the average, an eclipse will take place in almost the same part of the earth.

Firearms Law Upheld by U.S. Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — A unanimous Supreme Court upheld today the 1968 law that requires manufacturers and importers of certain kinds of firearms to register with the federal government.

Speaking for the court, Justice William O. Douglas rejected the argument the registration is self-incriminating.

The ruling permits prosecution of two Californians on charges of possessing unregistered hand grenades.

Throughout his opinion, Douglas emphasized that the information obtained from registrants by the federal government is not turned over to the states for prosecuting violators of separate state laws.

This turnover of information had impelled the high court in 1968 to strike down an earlier federal law requiring firearms registration. The theory in that case was a registrant's protection against self-incrimination was breached when Washington gives the states material with which to prosecute him under state laws.

Congress wrote the new law following the court's decision. It requires registration of people who make or bring into the country shotguns and rifles with short barrels, automatic weapons, silencers, bombs, rockets and grenades.

In 1969, a Los Angeles grand jury indicted Shirley Jean Sutherland, of Beverly Hills, and Donald Freed of West Los Angeles. The government said they planned to give 10 hand grenades to the Black Panther party. Mrs. Sutherland, 35, is the daughter of T.C. Douglas, head of Canada's New Democratic party.

U.S. Dist. Judge Warren J. Ferguson dismissed the indictments with a ruling that the law is unconstitutional. The Supreme Court reversed him.

Wants U.S. Security Laws Strengthened

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. James O. Eastland took a new tack today in seeking passage of legislation he said is urgently needed to strengthen the nation's internal security laws.

The Mississippi Democrat, head of the Senate Judiciary Committee, introduced six bills today that will, among other things, increase the effectiveness of the Subversive Activities Control Board and bar the employment of Communists in defense plants.

Eastland chaired the Judiciary Committee's internal security subcommittee when it approved the big package last year, but the full committee killed it. He hopes breaking the measure into six parts will help get at least some of the laws on the books.

122 Killed in First Quarter

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Police Director Col. Ralph Scott says the 122 traffic fatalities recorded in Arkansas during the first three months of 1971 was the lowest total for any first quarter since 1963.

Scott said there were 131 fatalities during the same period last year. There were 118 during the first quarter of 1963.

Leftists Are Winning in Chile Election

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON

Associated Press Writer
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Marxist President Salvador Allende's leftist coalition appeared early today to have won an important victory in nationwide municipal elections.

With nearly half the ballots from Sunday's voting counted, candidates of Allende's Popular Unity coalition for council seats in 280 municipalities had received 871,724 votes, or 48.45 per cent of the total.

That was a substantial increase over the 36.3 per cent won by the coalition, which is dominated by Socialists and Communists, in the September presidential election.

The two main opposition parties, the Christian Democrats and the Nationalists, and the smaller Democratic Radical party, had 846,778 votes.

The rest of the votes were blank, void or cast for splinter party candidates.

The elections gave Chilean voters their first opportunity to express what they thought of Allende's government after five months in power.

The Popular Unity coalition conducted a vigorous election campaign, aiming for 50 per cent of the vote which it said would give Allende a firmer mandate to transform Chile into a socialist state.

Allende's Socialist party also gained strength within the coalition. Its candidates won 385,257 votes to 292,670 for the Communists.

In the three southernmost provinces, Adonis Sepulveda, a Socialist, was leading in a special election to fill the senate seat vacated by Allende when he became president.

One death was reported during the voting, a 17-year-old Christian Democrat who was shot near Socialist party headquarters in Puerto Aysen, 900 miles south of Santiago. Interim Undersecretary Daniel Vergara, a Communist, said nine Socialists were arrested and two revolvers were confiscated.

Since taking office in November, Allende has frozen prices and raised wages, begun a free milk program for children under 15 and given thousands of pairs of shoes to the needy.

Unemployment has risen from 6.8 per cent to 9 per cent, and agricultural production has been disrupted by government expropriation of some large farms and the seizure of others by groups of landless peasants.

A knowledgeable informant at the California White House said Saturday the Laos operation makes a major enemy push unlikely for about 18 months—implying Hanoi cannot mount a major new offensive before November 1972.

And the continued U.S. withdrawals will mean American military support of the scale of the Laos campaign will not be possible next year, the White House informant said.

Nixon's last troop reduction announcement, April 20, 1970, covered a year. He ordered a pullback of 150,000 men to a ceiling of 284,000 by May 1, 1971.

The President has indicated he will maintain or speed up the present 12,500-a-month withdrawal rate in the next round. His avowed aim is to pull out all GI's, though he has pledged to keep some U.S. military force—size so far unspecified—in South Vietnam as long as the North holds American prisoners.

Two prominent senators Sunday added to the mounting chorus of congressional calls for a deadline for total U.S. withdrawal. Nixon has opposed a public deadline on grounds it would dash any remaining chance for a negotiated peace.

Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Frank Church, D-Idaho, authors of earlier amendments limiting U.S. involvement in Indochina, said they will sponsor a new proposal after Nixon's television-radio address Wednesday.

They said their new amendment would ask the President to set the deadline rather than having it fixed by Congress. They said the measure would give Nixon a negotiating tool for prisoner release and "whatever else he could get."

Musician Still Critical

NEW YORK (AP) — Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong is improving although he remains in critical condition, Beth Israel Hospital says.

The 70-year-old jazz great was resting comfortably and breathing without a respirator Sunday, a hospital spokesman said. He felt well enough to ask for food but continued to be fed intravenously.

Armstrong entered the hospital March 15 for treatment of a heart condition and since has developed respiratory troubles.

Wants to Know True Cost of Bombings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., proposed today that President Nixon commission a study of "the true costs and effectiveness" of U.S. bombing operations in Southeast Asia.

Despite pressure he anticipates for a stepup in the bombing, Proxmire predicted such a study would indicate the number of U.S. air missions could be cut in half without reducing the effectiveness of the air war.

The bombing, he said, does not appear to have been very successful anyhow against Communist supply routes.

"We have been told that our air strikes in Southeast Asia have been successful in cutting off the flow of supplies to enemy forces in South Vietnam," he said in a statement. "But even in recent days—after years of bombing and a ground incursion as well—reports per-

Many in Camp for Easter Festival

INDEPENDENCE, Calif. (AP) — More than 500 persons camped Sunday around an old desert mining town for what was billed as a free Easter religious festival next weekend.

The Inyo County sheriff's office said minibuses, camping vehicles, trucks and cars carrying mainly young persons were arriving at the town of Ballarat at the rate of 10 vehicles an hour.

County officials tried to discourage young persons from coming because of intense heat, limited supply of food and water, and the lack of medical and health facilities.

Ballarat, population eight, is a clump of old buildings in the rock-and-sagebrush-strewn Panamint Valley, 60 miles south of Independence, 160 miles northeast of Los Angeles and 15 miles from Death Valley.

Promoter Rudy Zamora of Hollywood said he expected three million persons to attend the "religious pilgrimage, a gathering of the people."

"The attraction is the unity of mankind," Zamora said. Zamora said there would be an Easter sunrise observance with choir music. He said big name rock bands listed in advertising would not perform, but have been invited to attend and intermingle.

The event had been scheduled for the Death Valley National Monument, but officials told promoters only persons with confirmed camping reservations would be allowed in, so the Ballarat site was chosen.

"There's water here, but not much. It's a one-well town," said Undersheriff James Randolph. "It's already so hot, like 120-degree ground temperature in the day, that the snakes don't come out until it cools off at night."

"The nearest hospital is 80 miles away and the only store is just 20 by 20 feet. If they filled the store plumb full to the rafters they couldn't even feed a couple of thousand for four days," Randolph said.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED for it, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

IS IT TRUE WHAT THEY SAY?

Dear Helen:
On a TV talk show I heard a well-known bachelor brag that "dating," i.e., shelling out for dinners, shows, or whatever, is passe. He says he just asks, "Do you want to go to my place?" and if she says, "No!" they're through.

Have you ever heard of anything cheaper?—FOR WINING AND DINING FIRST.

Dear For:
Yes: How about the fella who suggests staying at HER place, to guzzle HER booze, or whatever?—H.

Dear Helen:
There's a bill before Congress that might help control international illegal drug traffic into the United States. The bill—H.R. 3831—would penalize, by restricting trade, countries that ignore the smuggling of dope into America.

Agreed, drug smuggling must be curtailed, but is restricting trade the answer? Isn't this punishing a whole country for the sins of a few?—DARIN

Dear Darin:
Why don't we all show our concern by writing to our congressmen? If this bill isn't the answer, then surely another will soon be hammered out if there is "a clear mandate from the people." —H.

Dear Helen:
You've had several letters about policemen, but I'd like to add a wife's version of: WHAT IS A COP?

A policeman is a husband, father or son, complete with pride, love, patience and any of the many other qualities that make up a man. But to some he's a pig with a big head because he represents authority.

To those who really know him: He's the one who makes calls to

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Nancy Sinatra's Las Vegas night club act, taped as it was performed on a large stage and backed by an orchestra, took over Ed Sullivan's Sunday night hour on CBS.

For a theatre audience, it was obviously an exceptionally good production. Unfortunately, large stages with proscenium arch, footlights and the rest don't help television programs.

Efforts were made to do interesting things with the cameras but occasionally the lighting was off and sometimes the sound was blurred. Nancy, who sang a lot and very effectively, was surrounded by talent—The Blossoms, a singing trio that reminded one of the original Supremes; and the Osmond Brothers, who with their singing and dancing were more impressive than on their own recent special.

Had the production been made in a studio, it seemed that the special would have been as interesting as the first TV special Miss Sinatra made a couple of seasons back.

In the late afternoon there was a "Young People's Concert" with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra on CBS. Leonard Bernstein expounded interestingly on the music and philosophies of composer Richard Strauss but it was Strauss' Music, "Thus Spake Zarathustra," which was the best part.

Danny Kaye and Vincent Price were the voice-only stars of ABC's musical fantasy, "Here Comes Peter Cottontail." It was a charming cartoon fable pegged to Easter and especially for children. But it was fun for the adults to listen to Danny Kaye playing an English rabbit and a French caterpillar with his marvelously precise accents.

CBS's Friday night movie lifted the wraps on one of its next season series, "O'Hara: U.S. Treasury." In the two-hour pilot film, David Janssen played a small town Nebraska sheriff who, after losing his wife and child in a fire, joins the government service.

Our hero hopes for the secret service but lands in the customs service. His first case was tracking down the syndicate smuggling hashish into the United States from Mexico. Jack Webb directed the feature and loaded it with those short, snappy bits of dialogue characteristic of "Dragnet."

Since "Gunsmoke" starts next season's production early and has a doctor's role written importantly into many of its scripts, there will be a new sawbones in Dodge City, for a while anyway.

His name will be Dr. John Chapman and he will be played by Pat Hingle. He'll be Doc Adams since the series started—is convalescing from major heart surgery.

Movie Folks to Meet With President

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif.

(AP) — President Nixon meets today with leaders of the Hollywood movie industry on its nagging economic problems: empty sound stages and the worst unemployment in its history.

Without protection and incentives to match those available abroad, Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty recently told Nixon, "the American film industry will cease to exist."

A Who's Who of Hollywood production figures were invited to today's meeting.

They included Jack Valenti, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, and studio chiefs such as Ted Ashley of Warner Bros., James Aubrey of MGM and Stanley Jaffe of Paramount.

Representing performers was Charlton Heston, president of the Screen Actors Guild. Labor's spokesmen included Richard Walsh, president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees.

Yorty's March 21 letter to presidential assistant Peter J. Flanagan said: "The average unemployment in the motion picture industry is catastrophic and in excess of 45 per cent, with the actors' and extras unemployment exceeding 85 per cent."

Labor lays much of its plight to so-called "runaway" productions in other countries, where filmmakers take advantage of exotic locales, lower labor costs and government subsidies.

In West Germany for example, Yorty wrote, a box-office levy subsidizes awards of 50,000 marks—$13,775—for films that promote the country's reputation.

He said runaways and imports totaled 19 per cent of production in 1946 and 80 per cent in 1970.

The mutual handle for the 50-day period was $50,614,860, for an average daily handle of a little more than $1 million — breaking all previous records.

The total attendance for 1971 was 650,565 topping the old record of 556,000.

An all-time attendance record for one day was set on March 27 with 25,067. The old record was set on closing day last year, 23,352.

Among other records broken was the Derby Day handle of $2,178,965 Saturday. The old record of 1,990,895 was set on Derby Day last year.

Chicago White Sox American League—West

PROSPECTUS: White Sox have a new manager, Chuck Tanner, and many new faces. But some old ones — getting people into White Sox Park. Cubs are out-drawing White Sox with people to spare and there has been talk of the club moving to another city. Sox gamble in trading Luis Aparicio after one of his best seasons, and the trade had better pay off, lest they lose their remaining fans.

PITCHING: White Sox once had best staff in the league; in 1970 they had the poorest. Wilbur Wood has been brought out of the bullpen to become a starter after a 9-13 season that included 21 saves and an ERA of 2.80. He'll join a rotation that includes Tommy John, who slipped to 12-17 last season, Joe Horlen, 6-16; Jerry Janusz, 10-17; and Tom Bradley, from Angels. Steve Hamilton, from Yankees, becomes No. 1 man in bullpen, Folly Floater notwithstanding. Rating: C

CATCHING: Three-way tossup among Tom Egan, who hit 238 as Angel, Ed Herrmann, who hit 19 home runs, and Duane Josephson. Rating: B

INFIELD: Carlos May is being brought in from left field to play first base. He hit 285 with 12 homers and 68 RBIs last year. The move is being made, said Tanner, to make him more comfortable in the field. Translated, it means his defense was poor. Mike Andrews, from Boston, takes over at second, and Luis Alvarado, also from Boston, moves into Aparicio's spot at short. He hit 224 last season, Aparicio 313. Bill Reardon stays at third after 33 home runs, 96 RBIs season. Rating: B

OUTFIELD: Jay Johnstone, from Angels, will replace Ken Berry in center field. Johnstone hit 11 home runs and drove in 39 while batting .255 last season. Rick Reinhardt, from Washington, will take over in left and right field is tossup between Walt Williams, the incumbent, and Pat Kelly, from Royals. Lee Maye, also from Washington, and Tom Bradley in picture. Rating: C

LOOKIES TO WATCH: Pitchers Dick Maloney and Dennis O'Toole may top the pitching situation.

Foyt Beats the Best in Petty

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA (AP) — "When you've beaten Richard Petty and the other NASCAR drivers, you've beaten the best," says Texan A. J. Foyt, who is finding the Grand National late model stock car racing circuit financially rewarding.

Foyt, a three-time Indianapolis winner, steered his 1969 Mercury by Petty on the back straightaway 12 laps from the finish Sunday and claimed the $19,200 first prize in the Atlanta 500.

"He'll run wheel-to-wheel with you," Foyt said of Petty. "He got into the corners better than I, but I beat him out of the corners and that's how I got the lead. Things got a little hairy running that fast and I almost lost it twice."

Foyt had controlled the race most of the way, holding the lap lead for 205 of the 328 trips around the 1.5-mile saucer-shaped oval. But Petty closed a 26-second advantage under a caution flag and then zipped into the lead when Foyt stopped for fuel on the 305th lap.

Petty retained his slim lead, but Foyt stayed right on his bumper and made his move 26 miles from the end. Foyt extended his advantage to 1.8 seconds when he took the checkered flag.

The finish gave Foyt memories of his 1967 triumph at Indianapolis when he picked his way through a five-car pileup on the final lap.

Foyt and Petty had to negotiate a two-car spin-out a quarter-mile from the finish line Sunday.

Foyt averaged 131.375 miles per hour despite running under caution flags four times during the race. Petty, in a Plymouth, earned second place money of $10,700.

Pete Hamilton drove his Plymouth to a third place finish, followed by David Pearson in a Ford and Bobby Isaac in a Dodge.

Harding to Send Bowlers to NAA Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Harding College's bowling team earned a trip to the NAA national tournament Saturday by winning the NAA District 17 title, the Area Four championship and the AIC title.

Harding won the national title last year.

The Bisons captured the District 17 and Area Four titles with 5,336 points. Southern State College finished second in both events with 5,033 points.

Harding, led by Mark Poteat and Gary Parsons, scored 21,895 points to win the AIC title. Poteat scored 4,461 points and Parsons had 4,396. Southern State was second in the AIC with 20,855 points.

won by longestshot Bushido.

Angel Cordero Jr. got Jim French to the finish of the 1½-mile Santa Anita Derby by 1¼ lengths over Arthur A. Seeliger Jr.'s favored Unconscious, with Fritz' and Seehrest's Vegas Vic third and R.G. Buc's Crimson Demon fourth in the field of 10 that carried level weights of 120 pounds.

Unconscious, losing for the first time in four starts this year, and Vegas Vic both are eligible for a trip to Kentucky and plans are to race them in the $100,000-added California Derby at Golden Gate April 17. Unconscious definitely is being aimed for Louisville.

Jim French paid a winning mutual of $9.60 after running the 1½ miles in 1:48 1-5 for his third win, all in stakes, in eight starts this year.

The Dirty Dribblers Win Again
By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer
Keel's Dirty Dribblers win again! Or was it for the first time and did they really win?
If you count the 20 points the Keel Dribblers added to their score on the board during the brief rest between the third and fourth quarters, they won, otherwise they lost by eleven points last Friday night.
Led by Lane Brigham, who hit sixteen points during the course of the game, Keel came back from an eight point deficit in the first half to win with the aid of the 20 points.
With the Women's Independent team playing during the first half, Keel took the ball first, but didn't get downcourt far, and seconds later a free throw by Charlotte Burnett put the ladies into a 1-0 lead.
Stretching the early lead out to 4-2 later on, the women lost the lead and grabbed a 12-7 lead moving into the second quarter.
However, at the tipoff, the women began to hit from the outside as Burnett popped in six straight points, before Steve Kelly could put points on the board for Keel.
Two free throws by Charlotte Gibson and field goals by Helen Rateliff and Mary Fuller helped to finish out the first half, as the scoreboard showed Keel to be trailing, 22-14, at halftime.
During intermission, the Key Club all-stars warmed up and early in the second half took a 26-14 margin on points by Randy Wright and Ronnie Massanelli.
Four points by Brigham and two by Kelly closed the gap to 28-20, but with 1:31 left in the third period, Parker Powell hit two points to start a scoring spree by the Key Clubbers.
Approaching the one minute mark left in the quarter, Massanelli layed up a basket and Powell hit six to give Hope a 40-24 lead, moving into the final period.
At that point, the scoreboard somehow punched out the 20 points and the Dirty Dribblers led 44-40.
Points by Powell and Rusty Quillin knotted the score at 44 all, but Brigham and Kelly hit

Baseball to Get Started Officially

Roaming Richie Allen, whose second western migration in as many years has boosted Los Angeles' National League pennant stock, starts swining for the Dodgers at Houston tonight in the finale of the 1971 baseball season's three-game send-off.

The Dodgers and Astros were set to tangle at the Astrodome after traditional daytime openers at Cincinnati and Washington ushered in the 102nd year of major league play.

Sixteen other clubs will go to the starting gate Tuesday before the world champion Baltimore Orioles and the Chicago White Sox complete the opening cycle with Wednesday games.

The Dodgers, buoyed by the addition of Allen's long ball punch in a winter trade with St. Louis, will send Bill Singer to the mound against Houston ace Larry Dierker in their arc light inaugural.

Allen, who went from Philadelphia to the Cardinals after the 1969 season and belted 34 home runs last year, will start in left field for Los Angeles, which has been installed by the oddsmakers as a 3-1 choice to dethrone Cincinnati's injury-riddled Reds in the NL.

The Reds, loaded with power last season as they ran away with the league's West Division title and flattened Pittsburgh in the pennant playoff, were short-circuited by injuries to center fielder Bob Tolan and first baseman Lee May as they entertained Atlanta today before a sellout crowd of 51,726.

At Washington, the Senators and Oakland A's met in the annual American League opener—without President Nixon on hand to throw out the first ball for the second successive year.

Army Master Sgt. Daniel L. Pitler, who spent four years as a war prisoner in Vietnam, did the relief pitching for Nixon before Washington's Dick Bosman and Oakland's Vida Blue assumed the mound assignments.

David Eisenhower, Nixon's son-in-law, subbed for the President a year ago.

In Tuesday's NL openers, Philadelphia is at Pittsburgh, Montreal at the New York Mets, St. Louis at the Chicago Cubs and San Francisco at San Diego. The New York Yankees visit Boston, Cleveland is at Detroit, Milwaukee at Minnesota and Kansas City at California in second-day AL curtain-raisers.

Baltimore, the overwhelming pick to defend the AL flag, meets visiting Washington Wednesday while the White Sox open with a doubleheader at Oakland.

Whiz Kid of Bowling Near Money Mark

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Johnny Petraglia, the whiz kid of professional bowling, is just $1,222 shy of cracking the one-season tournament winnings mark.

The 24-year-old Brooklyn southpaw, nicknamed "Rags" because of his rags to riches story, boosted his 1971 winnings to $66,152 with the $25,000 check that accompanied the Firestone Tournament of Champions title Saturday.

The Firestone was Petraglia's third PBA tournament victory in three weeks. With more than 20 tournaments remaining on the 1971 calendar, he is almost certain to top the $67,374 season winnings record set by Jim Stefanich of Joliet, Ill., in 1968.

Streaks and Keel soon had a 54-46 margin with 4:00 left.

Two layups by Massanelli and a field goal each by Wright and Powell, were all the Key Clubbers could get, as the Dirty Dribblers won their first game, 63-54.

Brigham had 16 points for Keel while Mr. Weather had his problems with the weather shots and was caught without any points. For the women's team, Burnett had 12 points and for the Key Club, Powell hit 14. Massanelli racked up 12, and Wright had four.

Overall the charity game was a success and the HHS Key Club should be commended for their fine project with all proceeds going to the Wichita State Football Fund.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) — Gerry Sullivan, racing editor of the Boston Herald Traveler, will be the acting president of the National Turf Writers Association for the next two months.

Buddy Allin Winner at Greensboro

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Buddy Allin is a frail-looking little 130-pounder, sandy-haired and boyish appearing, looking for all the world like the drug-store delivery boy.

But the ex-artillery officer, decorated four times in 16 months of Vietnam combat duty, again proved his mettle when he banged in a birdie putt on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff and won the $38,000 first prize in the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

Allin, who had won only $5,954 prior to his victory, had a final-round 69, two-under-par on the 7,034-yard Sedgefield Country Club Course, and finished with a 275.

Rod Funseth, the third-round leader, had a 71 and Eichelberger had a 69.

Eichelberger and Funseth each collected $17,575 from the total purse of $190,000.

Peter Brown was alone in third with a 69 for 276. Veterans Terry Dill, 68, and Miller Barber, 72, followed at 277. U.S. Open king Tony Jacklin of England had a 67 and was one of three at 278.

Lee Trevino had a final 69 for 279. Masters champ Billy Casper took a 70 for 283 and South African Gary Player, winner of the last two tour events, was far back with a 71 for 285.

The 27-year-old Eichelberger had the lead alone going to the final hole—Allin had finished almost a half hour earlier—and set up the playoff when he bogeyed after hitting his drive deep into the woods.

That sent the three of them to the first tee for the fourth playoff of the season. All drove the fairway. And all put their second shots into the fringe around the green.

Funseth putted first and missed.

"I kind of went to school on that one a little," Allin said. "I had a little hill to go over, then a valley. It was about 30 feet. I just stepped up and hit it."

And he holed it, giving him a spot in the Tournament of Champions and the match play championship with a guarantee of at least 3,200 more from those two events. But he won't be in the Masters, which starts Thursday at Augusta, Ga.

Kansas City Downs Cards at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Kansas City downed St. Louis, 13-5, after hitting four homers and four doubles in the last exhibition game for both teams this spring.

The Royals gained five runs in the second inning from Cardinal pitcher Reggie Cleveland. Paul Schall, Fred Patek and Joe Kough had doubles in that inning and Amos Otis hit a two-run homer over the right center field fence.

Bruce Dal Canton was the winning pitcher yielding three runs on five hits, striking out one and walking two.

Senators, Athletics in Opener

WASHINGTON (AP) — Young Veterans League veteran Dick Bosman today as the Oakland Athletics meet the Washington Senators in the traditional Presidential opener inaugurating another baseball season.

A sellout crowd of 45,000 was expected in Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, but President Nixon and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will be absent.

Army M. Sgt. Daniel L. Pitzer, a prisoner of the Viet Cong for four years before returning to the United States in 1967, was selected by the White House to toss out the ceremonial first ball of the game. With him will be his son, 14-year-old Donald, and the sons and daughters of five prisoners of war.

Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird will read a message from Nixon.

David Eisenhower, Nixon's son-in-law, threw out the first pitch last year.

Blue, 21, joined the A's Sept. 3 after posting a 12-3 record for Iowa. On Sept. 11, he blanked Kansas City with one hit, and 10 days later he hurled a no-hitter for a 6-0 victory over the Minnesota Twins. In 38 innings, he struck out 35.

Bosman, 27, won 16 and lost 12 for the Senators, winning the most games of any Washington pitcher since Camilo Pascual notched 17 in 1959.

The A's, who finished second behind Minnesota in the American League West last season, will go with last year's lineup featuring outfielder Rick Monday, shortstop Bert Campaneris and first baseman Don Mincher.

Playoff and Payoff Time in the ABA

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's payoff time as well as playoff time for Louie Dampier.

"Everytime I get into the American Basketball Association playoffs, I get hungry for that money," says the Kentucky Colonels' outstanding outside shooter.

Dampier fed on the Floridians with a 28-point performance, including four three-point goals, to give the Colonels a 120-110 victory Sunday and a 2-0 edge in their East Division semifinals.

The Colonels-Floridians clash was one of three playoff matches Sunday. In the others, Virginia topped New York 114-108 to take a 2-0 lead in their East playoffs and Utah ripped Texas 113-101 to grab a 3-0 margin in the West semis.

Led by Dampier, the Colonels wiped out an early Floridians lead and charged to a 61-55 advantage at the half. Issel, who added 26 points, helped give the winners a 109-91 lead before the Floridians made a comeback try at the end behind Mack Calvin.

Calvin scored eight of his 35 points in the last two minutes to bring the Floridians within six, but Kentucky's Howard Wright connected on two free throws in the final 40 seconds to nail it for Kentucky.

Rookie whiz Charlie Scott scored 29 points and flipped in crucial baskets in the final two minutes for Virginia.

The Squires, who managed only six points through the first 7½ minutes of the final period, fell behind 102-99 with five minutes left. Field goals by Doug Moe, who finished with 24 points, and Scott gave Virginia a short-lived 103-102 advantage. But the Squires fell behind when Manny Leaks fired in a jumper for the Nets' final lead.

Scott then hit two field goals and a pair of free throws in the closing seconds after Ray Scott had scored four points. Rick Barry led New York with 32 points.

Virginia plays at New York in the series' next two games Tuesday and Wednesday.

Zelmo Beaty scored 32 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead Utah. The Stars took a first-quarter lead and never relinquished it, although Texas threatened several times behind Don Freeman's 30 points and Gene Moore's 21.

The Chaps narrowed the gap to 93-91 with 8:06 left before the Stars broke open the game with eight free throws in the last

Gophers Talk to Coaching Prospect

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Will Bill Musselman of Ashland, Ohio, College become the next University of Minnesota basketball coach?

Musselman was in Minneapolis Sunday and was not expected to return to Ohio until Tuesday, The Associated Press learned.

The whereabouts of the Ashland coach threw an interesting light on the musical chairs basketball position at Minnesota.

Cal Luther, coach and athletic director at Murray, Ky., State accepted the job as Minnesota coach last Friday but telephoned university officials during the weekend and said the deal was off because of "personal and family reasons."

Luther, after appearing at a Friday news conference in Minneapolis, appeared to be Minnesota's third new coach in four years, succeeding George Hanson who resigned after one season of 11-13 and 5-9 in the Big Ten.

Luther was one of four men formally interviewed for the job. Musselman reportedly was another and Dave Harter of regular season unbeaten Pennsylvania was another.

But Harter, known to have visited Minnesota last week, has said he wasn't interested in the job and wanted to stay at Penn.

Malcolm Moos, Minnesota president, hastily called a news conference Sunday and told of Luther's decision to remain in Kentucky.

The clubs play the fourth game of the series in Dallas Tuesday night.

Indiana plays Memphis tonight in the ABA's other West Division semifinal. The Pacers, defending ABA champions, lead the best-of-7 series 2-0.

In Saturday's games, Indiana topped Memphis 106-104 and Utah buried Texas 137-107.

Frowns and Smiles by Grid Coaches

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There were both smiles and frowns on the faces of Southwest Conference football coaches during the weekend, possibly a sign of what will be coming up in spring football drills this week.

Like Coach Jim Pittman's TCU Horned Frogs will likely be working on hanging onto the football this week. Fumbles kept cropping up in Saturday's Purple-White scrimmage.

"We had a lot of turnovers," Pittman said. "This is the most careless group I've ever seen. You can't win close games dropping the football. They'd gain 25 yards and fumble the thing."

Each team lost the ball three times on fumbles.

Quarterback Steve Judy was one of the bright spots in the scrimmage, the Frogs' first of the spring training schedule.

Judy scored three touchdowns, rushed 74 yards and passed for 52. Pittman praised the running of freshman quarterback Kent Marshall, who also scored three touchdowns.

New Rice Coach Bill Peterson did some frowning too as he watched his Owls go through what Peterson described as a "sometimes football game."

Peterson did say that he saw "a few good things, some encouraging things."

Texas Tech Coach Jim Carlen emerged from Saturday's first Raider scrimmage with a glowing report on his first team offense.

"Our first offensive unit is about as far along at this point as any I've had since I've been

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Miller Barber of Texarkana, Tex., won $6,446 after finishing the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament here Sunday with a four-day total of 277.

Brian Allin won the sudden-death playoff with a 275 to win $38,000.

State Splits a Pair With Abilene

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State University split a baseball doubleheader with Abilene Christian here Saturday, losing the first game 1-0 and winning the second 3-1.

Right-hander Tommy McDaniel threw a two-hitter at the Indians in the first game.

Two singles, a walk and a wild pitch gave ASU two runs in the first inning of the second game and left-hander Bobby Harris handcuffed Abilene on three hits to raise his record to 3-1.

NFL Probe Continued by U.S. Jury

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A federal grand jury resumed its investigation today into operations of the National Football League.

The jury, which recessed indefinitely March 10 after hearing testimony from former St. Louis Cardinals' head coach Charley Winner, has been probing for possible antitrust violations in the NFL.

Cleveland Browns' owner Arthur Modell, who testified two hours before the jury on March 8, was subpoenaed to appear again today.

Modell said after his appearance March 8 that he still did not know why the investigation was being conducted.

The probe began last November under the direction of the Cleveland district office of the antitrust division of the U.S. Department of Justice. It followed complaints of some former NFL players that they had been blacklisted from the league.

Modell said after his initial jury appearance that there "definitely is no blacklisting in pro football or the Cleveland organization." The former NFL president said he would know if there was.

Modell said at that time the jury had promised him that when he was recalled he would be given "ample opportunity to make comments on my own."

a coach," Carlen said.

"The next two weeks will be interesting," Carlen said. "We have about everybody pictured now and there will be a lot of fluctuating."

Brad Dusek lugged the ball 24 times for 147 yards and scored all five touchdowns in leading Texas A&M's first team to a 30-0 victory over the second team Saturday.

Freshman quarterback Tim Trimmier his six passes for 91 yards as a sub for starting quarterback Lex James, who is missing spring training because of hepatitis.

Sees Merger of Pro Cage Leagues

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Jim McDaniels, pro basketball's most expensive bonus baby, thinks two warring leagues will meet soon.

"They're going to have to get together in another year anyway," said the 7-foot Western Kentucky All-American who has signed a multi-year contract rumored at $3 million with the American Basketball Association's Carolina Cougars.

With 7-2 Jacksonville All-American Artis Gilmore at center, McDaniels felt right at home at forward in the Cougars' East-West All-Star Game Saturday in the University of Dayton Arena.

He walked off with the Star of Stars Trophy, symbolic of the game's outstanding player, after hitting 12 of 17 floor shots for 29 points and gathering 10 rebounds. His performance sparked the East to a 106-104 overtime decision over the West.

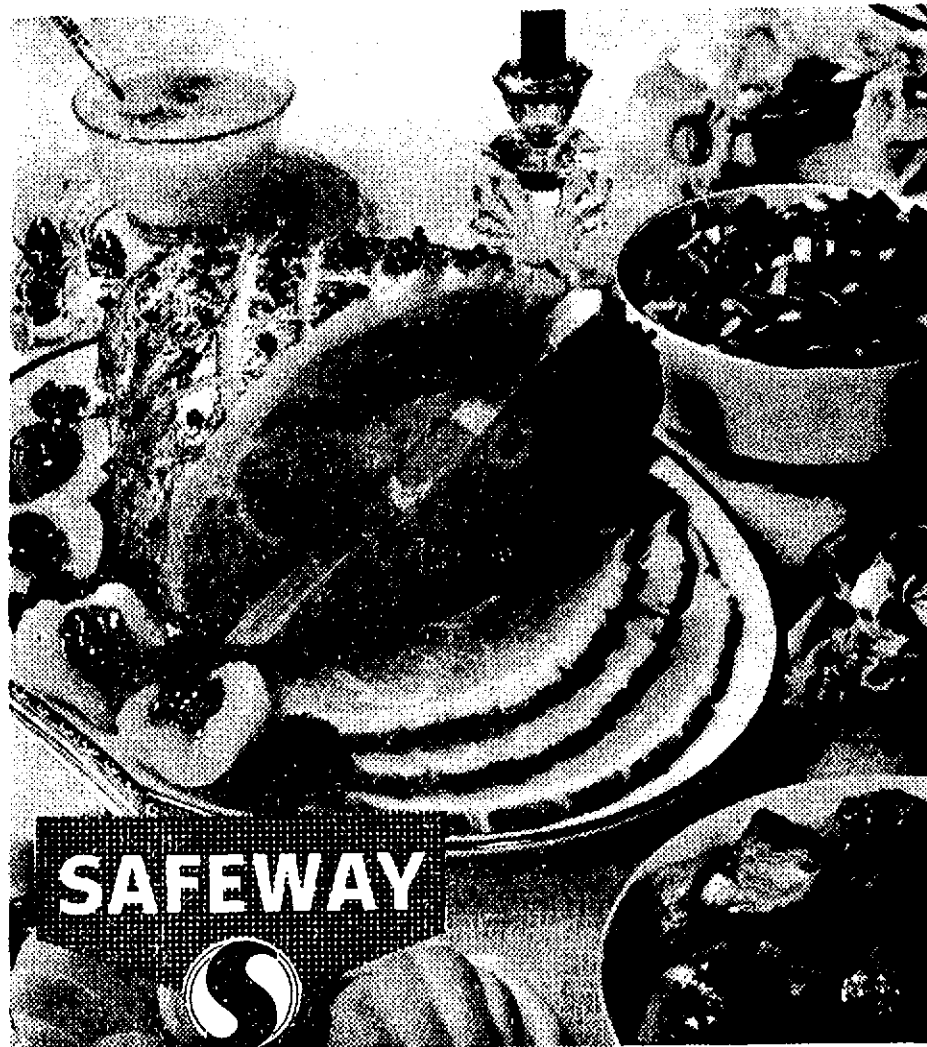

McDaniels is a key figure in the war between the older National Basketball Association and the ABA.

He was drafted by the ABA's Utah Stars, but signed with the Cougars. Seattle waited until the second round of the NBA draft to pick the gifted outside shooter.

"I'm in. I don't care. It's the underclassmen that have to worry," McDaniels said.

Barry is an Irish name which means "spear."

Bergamonti Once Quit Motorcycling

BOLOGNA, Italy (AP) — Angelo Bergamonti was in motorcycling for 14 years, winning the Italian championship in 1967. But he once retired at the insistence of his wife, who expressed fear of the sport's danger.

Bergamonti later came back—and lost his life Sunday in an accident in the Italian championships along the Adriatic seacoast town of Riccione.

The 32-year-old Bergamonti, considered at the height of his career despite his age, suffered multiple fractures when his MV-Agusta slipped off the road at 120 miles an hour.

He was rushed to a hospital in Riccione and later transferred to Bologna where he died without regaining consciousness.

Until the mishap, Bergamonti was running second to world champion Giacomo Agostini, who rode another MV-Agusta to victory.

Bergamonti, an official MV-Agusta driver, had taken part in numerous international events. In Yugoslavia in 1969, he suffered a broken skull but bounced back from the injury to resume racing.

After Sunday's mishap, organizers called off the rest of the Italian championships.

Boston and New York Favored

Boston's awesome scoring machine spearheaded by fantastic Phil Esposito, and the defense-minded New York Rangers, winners of their first Vezina Trophy in 31 years, rank as the favorites today as eight National Hockey League teams ready themselves for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Esposito climaxed his sensational scoring season with three more goals Sunday, increasing his season's total to an unbelievable 76 goals and 76 assists for 152 points, as the Bruins blitzed their first round playoff opponents, the Montreal Canadiens, 7-2.

The Rangers nailed down their first Vezina Trophy since 1930-40—the last year they won the Stanley Cup—with Ed Giacomin's eighth shutout of the season, a 6-0 job against Detroit. New York's 177 goals against was the fewest allowed by any team this season.

Elsewhere on Sunday's final day of the regular schedule, Toronto tripped Chicago 3-2, St. Louis and Pittsburgh tied 1-1, Buffalo tied Philadelphia 3-3 and Los Angeles defeated Vancouver 4-2.

In Saturday's games, Montreal trimmed New York 7-2, Philadelphia edged Minnesota 3-2, Boston ripped Toronto 8-3, Chicago downed Detroit 4-1, St. Louis edged Pittsburgh 4-3 and Los Angeles defeated California 6-4.

The playoffs begin Wednesday with Toronto at New York and Montreal at Boston in East Division matchups and Philadelphia at Chicago and Minnesota at St. Louis in the West. The best-of-7 series continue Thursday and then switch sites for games Saturday and Sunday.

The Bruins, who won their first Stanley Cup in 29 years last season, broke 16 NHL team records and 21 individual marks in marching to the East Division championship this season. Included among their records was a team total of 399 goals, 98 more than any team had ever totaled before.

Esposito, who had nine goals in his last five games, was one of five Bruins to go over 30 goals for the season. Boston had 10 players with more than 20 goals—a standard that once signified the equivalent of a .300 batting average for a hockey player.

Sunday's three goals gave Esposito seven hat tricks for the season—three more than any player had managed in a single season before. Derek Sanderson added two short-handed goals for the Bruins against the Canadiens, increasing Boston's record for scoring while penalized to 25 goals.

The Rangers, meanwhile, continued to accentuate the defense with Giacomin kicking out 33 Detroit shots to nail down the Vezina Trophy.

New York established team records in almost every category including most victories, most points, most goals as well as the best defense record in the league. But they finished a fat 12 points behind Boston in the NHL standings, even though their record was the second best in the league.

Bob Nevin and Bruce MacGregor scored two goals apiece in the wrapup victory over Detroit while Brad Park and Rod Gilbert notched the others. Gilbert's goal was his 30th, a personal career high.

Toronto used second-period goals by Jim Dorey and Guy Trotter to whip Chicago's West Division champions. The Black Hawks, who captured the West crown by 20 points over St. Louis, finished seven goals behind New York in the Vezina Trophy race.

The victory was Toronto's third this season over Chicago and made the Leafs the only team in the league to capture the season's series from the Black Hawks.

Chris Bordeleau's third-period goal gave St. Louis its tie with Pittsburgh, in a game which saw Blues' defenseman Bob Plager and Pittsburgh goalie Al Smith ejected after a first-period brawl.

Philadelphia, which had nailed down third place in the West by whipping Minnesota Saturday, got two goals in less than 2½ minutes by Andre Lacroix in the third period Sunday to tie the Buffalo.

Gil Perreault of the Sabres increased his rookie record with his 39th goal of the year for Buffalo, which finished fifth in the East Division.

Los Angeles finished fifth in the West, beating Vancouver in the final game. Juha Widing, Bob Pulford, Ralph Backstrom and Ed Joyal connected for the Kings while Rosaire Paiement and Danny Johnson hit for the expansion Canucks.

China Player Boycotts Tennis Match

NAGOYA, Japan (AP) — Communist China's three-time world champion, Chuang Tse-tung, boycotted a second-round match against a Cambodian today and forfeited a chance of regaining the men's singles crown at the 31st World Table Tennis Championships.

Chuang advanced to the second round by beating Hong Kong's Ma Lung-sang 21-8, 22-24, 21-14, 21-10 and was to clash with Khau Bou of Cambodia.

Khau won over Israel's Paul Pasternak 13-21, 26-24, 14-21, 21-12, 21-13, advancing to the second round.

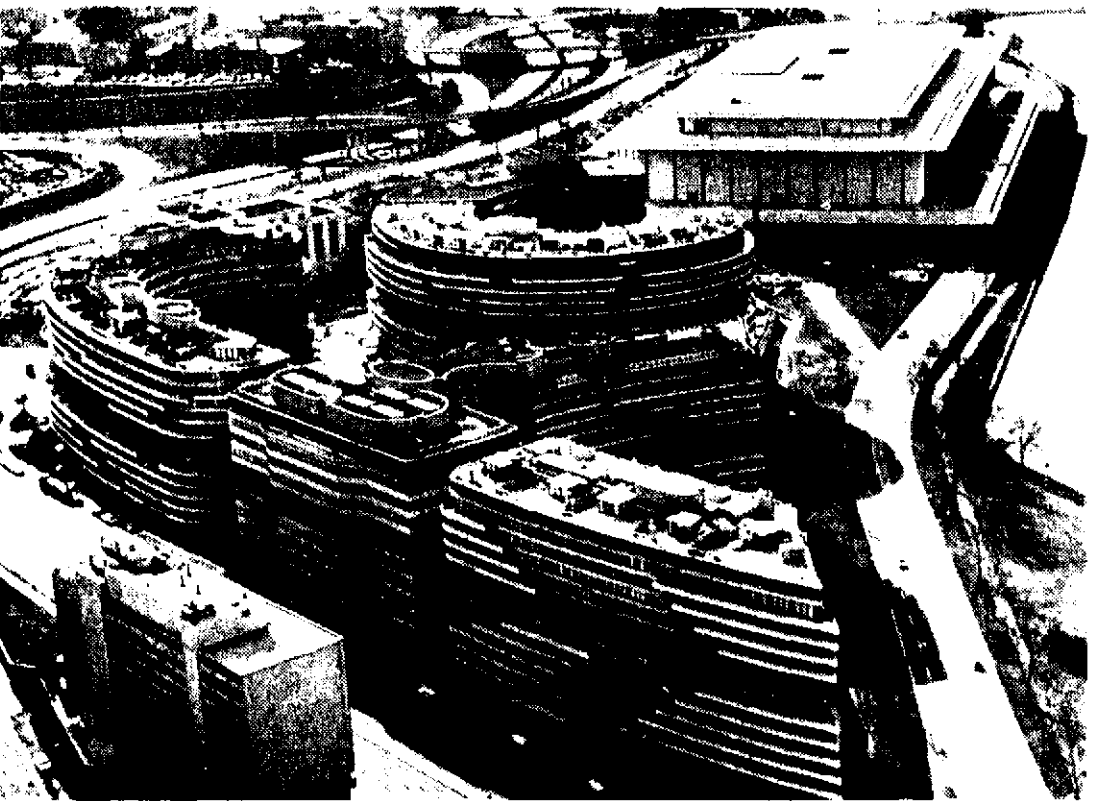

"Supporting our delegation's decision," the 30-year-old Chuang said, "I'll boycott a match against Khau."

Chuang was apparently commenting on last Friday's statement by Wang Hsiao-yun, deputy chief of the 60-member Chinese delegation, that he would order all Chinese players to boycott any encounter with Cambodian and South Vietnamese players in the current tournament.

Wang declared that the Cambodian and Vietnamese teams in Nagoya do not represent the "legitimate governments" of Prince Norodom Sihanouk and the Viet Cong's provisional revolutionary government.

Barbizon Streak Fades in Stretch

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Barbizon Streak, owned by Mrs. H. J. Udou of Fort Smith, ran away from everybody but Twist The Axe Saturday in the Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park.

Twist The Axe, given a fine ride by Garth Patterson, caught frontrunning Barbizon Streak at the eighth pole and scored a two-length victory that was worth $38,010.

Barbizon Streak was six lengths in front of Bixa, the show horse. Twist The Axe, owned by Pastoral Stables, completed the 1½ mile test in 1:49 1-5, two fifths off the track record. The winner paid $9.20, $3.80 and $3.60. Barbizon Streak, the favorite, returned $3.40 and $3.40 and Bixa paid $9.80 to show.

Barbizon Streak broke from the gate alertly and opened up a three-length lead. Barbizon Streak eliminated most of his opposition by racing the first six furlongs in 1:09 4-5, but the early spurt made him fair game when Twist The Axe loomed up on the outside.

Arturo Romero, the jockey on Barbizon Streak, said, "I saw him coming, but there was nothing I could do about it."

Barbizon Streak's early pace surprised many, including his trainer, Oran Battles.

"The jockey said the horse had so much run that he just couldn't hold him back," Battles said. "I think he probably felt deep down that the horse had so much he could steal the race. But there's no

Bruins Break National League Marks

BOSTON (AP) — The 1970-71 Boston Bruins broke 16 National Hockey League team records and 21 individual marks in their regular season which concluded with Sunday's 7-2 victory over the Montreal Canadiens.

The East Division champions finished with a 54-14-7 record, setting highs for victories and for points in the standings, 121. Their 399 goals and 1,093 scoring points also established records as did their 25 short handed goals figure nearly twice as high as the old mark of 14.

Highlighted among the individual records were Phil Esposito's 76 goals and 152 points, and Bobby Orr's 102 assists.

Conference title. The Knicks took Atlanta, four games to one, last week.

Visibly stunned by their earlier loss to San Francisco, the Bucks came out smoking and didn't stop the fireworks until building a 60-point advantage, 126-66, through the final period.

The winners, paced by John McGlothin, Lew Alcindor and Bob Dandridge, held a 38-13 first-quarter lead. Their superiority was so evident that the Bucks could have gone scoreless in the second quarter and still held the halftime lead. At intermission it was 69-35.

Milwaukee's Oscar Robertson tied an NBA playoff record with eight assists in the opening quarter. The one period mark had been set by Rod Hundley of Los Angeles in 1951.

McGlothin had 28 points, Alcindor 23 and Dandridge, 19. Fritz Williams led San Francisco with 13 points.

Baltimore and Philadelphia played on even terms in the first quarter with the Bullets holding a 31-30 edge. But Baltimore's Fred Carter and Earl Monroe combined for 20 points in a 43-point second quarter that actually salted it away with a 74-52 halftime lead.

Jack Marin led the Bullets with 33 points, four assists and 16 rebounds. Monroe had 26 points and Carter 18. Billy Cunningham led Philadelphia with 30.

Bob Love and Bob Weiss contributed to a 28-point third quarter that carried Chicago past Los Angeles and set their series showdown meeting for Tuesday night in Los Angeles.

The Lakers, building leads to 11 points in the first half, had a 57-52 advantage at halftime. The Lakers hit 56 per cent from the field with hot-handed Gail Goodrich contributing 19 points

"to the mountain and had seen the light."

The adjectives most used by legislators to describe Bumpers were hard working, earnest, dedicated, sincere. "The sincerity just oozes out of the man," said Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock.

But not all was sweetness and light.

About a month after the session began, some members of the House, protesting that the legislature looked like a rubber stamp, were able to delay consideration of some prime Bumpers legislation.

"He changed that," reports Rep. John Bethell of Des Arc, who rates Bumpers' performance during the session as good.

Bumpers did not always win. Chief among his losses were the bill making it easier to build turnpikes and to limit campaign expenditures — and on the last day before the recess — a measure creating a comprehensive civil service for state employees and an appropriation that would have helped school districts establish public kindergarten programs.

Some of the administration's supposedly controversial legislation—the repeal of the state's "fair trade" liquor law was one — sailed through with surprising ease. Other bills were not so easy. The legislation to admit osteopaths to the full practice of medicine and surgery in Arkansas won House approval only on a third vote.

A governor whose wife has said hates to lose, Bumpers compromised on other bills. The proposal reorganizing state government and giving the governor more powers, which Bumpers considers the hallmark of the session, underwent several Senate and House amendments before being approved.

Faced with two defeats in the Senate on his income tax bill, Bumpers reluctantly agreed to reduce the top tax rate from 9 to 7 per cent, but required five votes in the House before winning approval.

He also accepted amendments on several other bills that would make the measures more palatable to legislators.

"I learned during the session that there are gray areas," Bumpers said as the session neared an end. "I was brought up by my mother to think things were either black or white. When I hear good arguments for or against a specific bill, one argument will tip the scales in one direction or the other."

Rep. George E. Nowotny Jr. of Fort Smith, a Republican and potential candidate for governor in the future, also says that Bumpers "seems to still have difficulty in not yielding to pressure groups."

Nowotny spoke to criticism that Bumpers did not have to accept the resignation of Rockefeller — appointed State Police Director Ralph Scott, who had come under fire of some legislators, and that he had sacrificed Correction Commissioner C. Robert Sarver in the face of legislative criticism of Sarver in order to obtain approval of the penitentiary appropriation. Sarver was fired last week by the Board of Correction.

Nowotny said the Sarver affair had other "ramifications." If Bumpers can be pressured by the legislature to get rid of Sarver, Nowotny said, he can be forced to oust other department heads.

Legislators were high in their praise of Bumpers during the session.

Rep. W. F. Foster Sr. of Englewood said that Bumpers worked more closely with more individual legislators than did former Gov. Orval F. Faubus, who made his mark on the General Assembly during his six terms.

"Faubus had his legislative leaders (to work through) and this man (Bumpers) tried to work with everyone," Foster said.

Other legislators did not go as far as Foster in comparing Bumpers' relationship with the legislature with that of Faubus, but they rated his performance as good.

House Speaker Ray S. Smith Jr. of Hot Springs said the governor was "extremely strong, convincing and able."

Overheard in the legislative halls toward the end of the session was a Democratic representative's remark that Bumpers' program was "Winthrop Rockefeller's program with a smile."

While admitting that some of what the legislature had approved had been Rockefeller

Calley Case
Editor The Star: As a Navy Combat Veteran of World War II, I would like to express some of my feeling about the Army trial of Lt. William Calley.

I think ever red-blooded American should speak out now and express pro's and con's on this matter. I am a God-Fearing American, and I am proud to stand up for what I believe in. I don't like war, but our young men are trained to fight to defend our country, and I am proud that I was able to do my little bit in World War II.

Many people do not realize the pressure a person is under when he is in actual combat. I remember that some of our own men shot down some of our planes because of pressure on our physical bodies. I believe the military courts fail so many times to take this into consideration what so ever.

I have sat in on many court martial cases. While at the Naval Station at New Orleans, La. it was my job to march prisoners from the Brig who were on trial to face court charges. Many of these boys were just back from combat.

It made my heart bleed to hear some of the sentences that was handed down to these men. I believe in law and order but what unjust things had happened here. I believe that Lt. William Calley received an unfair trial and should have it completely reviewed again. Which by the way, I found out that many of the cases that happened at New Orleans Naval Station were again reviewed and changed because of the american people speaking up and letting the world know how they felt. I urge you the american people to do the same in the Lt. William Calley case. Lets stand behind these boy's who are willing to line with us, to fight for us, and to die for us if necessary, that we may continue to live in this great country America.

King Aide Is Arrested in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Hosea Williams, an aide to the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., has been arrested in St. Patrick's Cathedral and charged with disrupting Palm Sunday services.

Williams, program director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, led a small band of supporters to the cathedral Sunday, the third anniversary of the assassination of King, who founded the SCLC.

Bishop Joseph Flannelly had led several clerics, including Terence Cardinal Cooke, in a procession to the back of the huge packed cathedral as the 1 a.m. high mass was beginning when he encountered Williams and ten followers.

"We come to you as Christ came on Palm Sunday," Williams said.

"How can the church continue to preach the gospel of Jesus and continue to have holdings in big companies that oppress people in South Africa?" he continued. "How can the church continue to live a lie?"

As the other demonstrators began to chant, two policemen outside were summoned and Williams was arrested.

Later, released in his own recognizance, Williams said he did not intend to obstruct to religious service, because "we thought they would allow us to participate in that service."

He also vowed to return to St. Patrick's before the week is out to present demands to Cardinal Cooke.

Fighting in Pakistan Is Continuing

By MORT ROSENBLUM
Associated Press Writer
CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Skirmishing is reported continuing around rebellious East Pakistan as growing resistance forces harass West Pakistani army patrols, and mounting supply problems beset the Army.

Under strong pressure to provide material aid to the independence fighters, India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi rejected demands to supply arms. But her ruling Congress party gave the freedom movement is complete moral backing.

Newsman returning from wide areas of the neighboring province said roads were badly cut and Pakistani army patrols were denied freedom to move at will. Determined resistance fighters, though poorly armed, harassed small units of the West Pakistani troops, and only the larger garrisons were free from attack.

Using hit-and-run tactics to keep government forces at bay, the Bengali independence forces were reported maintaining pressure on West Pakistani troops while the rebels at the same time are training and organizing.

Informants said many young Indian Bengalis from Calcutta, experienced in political terrorism, have crossed the border to instruct the East Bengalis in making homemade bombs. The bombs are filled with small metal particles, use potassium chloride detonators and are often effective.

East Pakistanis often block roads with trees or dig craters to prevent West Pakistani soldiers from getting supplies. Troopers of the East Pakistan Rifles, a former border security force, are the only regular soldiers fighting for the independence of Bangla Desh, the so-called Bengali nation. But many able-bodied men have left home to join military units, starting from scratch to learn fighting techniques.

Women and children have left most of the border towns. Civil servants and police have abandoned their jobs and joined the Bangla Desh movement. Air raids by Pakistani jets on several areas were described by some reporters. One target of air attacks was the farming town of Chuadanga, described as the Bangla Desh provisional capital.

West Pakistani soldiers destroyed a police barracks in Kustia, near Cuadanga, killing 500 persons, according to secessionist sources.

The United News of India said in a dispatch from the border town of Krishnagar that Pakistani jets violated Indian air space while bombing resistance forces just before dawn Sunday. There was no confirmation from the Indian air force.

Scattered engagements between independence fighters and government troops trying to reimpose West Pakistan control of the province were reported from many parts of the 55,000-square mile region.

However, four European missionaries who sailed to Calcutta over the weekend reported conditions were calm in Dinajpur district in the extreme north-west corner of the province.

Fulbright Says Israel Using Reds for Bait

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Sen. J.W. Fulbright says he sees in Israeli warnings of a Soviet threat in the Middle East "some of the same old Communist-baiting humbuggery that certain other small countries have used to manipulate the United States for their own purposes."

In a speech Sunday to the Yale University Political Union, Fulbright, Arkansas Democrat who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said:

"When it comes to anticommunism, as we have noted in Vietnam and elsewhere, the United States is highly susceptible, rather like a drug addict, and the world is full of ideological 'pushers.'"

"It is a fine thing to respect a small country's independence and to abstain from interference in its internal affairs. It is quite another matter when, in the name of these worthy principles—but really because

I. D. RAYBORN

Rev. I. D. Rayborn of Yates Center, Kansas will begin a ten night revival at the First Assembly of God Church, 322 N. Main, the pastor C. C. Truitt, announced.

The services will begin each evening at 7:30 of the week with the Sunday night services at 7:00. There will not be services on Saturday nights.

Reverend Rayborn has had many years experience both as a pastor and an evangelist. His evangelistic ministry has taken him throughout the midwestern states and from coast to coast.

Rev. Rayborn is a well qualified speaker. He preaches the gospel with emphasis on prophetic scriptures which relate to every day happenings that are presently becoming history. He explains in a meaningful and easy to understand way some of the Bible's greatest truths. He uses a large Bible chart as an effective visual aid to make God's Word live in the hearts of those who hear and receive the Word. He sings, accompanying himself on the guitar.

The pastor invites the public to attend this Easter Revival.

Religion, War Issue Is Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court set aside today a federal judge's ruling that the draft law violates the religious freedom of Roman Catholics opposed to the Vietnam war.

The court, recalling its decisions early in March in two similar cases, directed U.S. Dist. Judge Alphonso J. Zirpoli of San Francisco to reconsider his ruling.

On March 8, the court ruled in effect that conscientious objectors cannot pick the wars in which they refuse to serve.

One case involves a Roman Catholic conscientious objector to the Vietnam war and the other involves a self-described humanist.

Justice William O. Douglas, who dissented in the high court's ruling on the two earlier cases, dissented also today.

In February 1970 Zirpoli dismissed an indictment against James Francis McFadden, 26, of San Francisco, who refused to submit to Army induction on grounds the war violates his conscience as a Catholic.

Zirpoli held that the First Amendment prohibits the government to command a man to act against his conscience. The judge said the draft law was unconstitutional forcing Catholics like McFadden to choose between their religion and going to jail or abandoning their convictions to avoid jail.

"Such a burden upon the exercise of one's religion can have no place in a society built by men and women of all religions and persuasions," he said.

of our continuing obsession with communism—we permit client states like Israel and South Vietnam to manipulate American policy toward purposes contrary to our interest and probably to theirs as well."

He said the Soviet Union is interested in expanding its influence in the Middle East, but that the prime interest of the Americans and Russians should be a political solution that would avoid a major confrontation.

If the Israelis and Arabs cannot reach agreement, Fulbright said, the United Nations should impose a solution supervised by a peacekeeping force including U.S. and Soviet troops.

At the same time, Fulbright praised Secretary of State William P. Rogers for trying to get a voluntary agreement.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, Plan to Meld Existing U.S. Departments

By G. C. THELEN JR.
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Part of President Nixon's sweeping government reorganization plan calls for melding large chunks of three existing departments and one other agency to produce a lean, well-oiled unit serving the needs of individuals and families.

To be called the Department of Human Resources, the proposed agency would combine the 103,000-man Department of Health, Education and Welfare with parts of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Departments of Labor and Agriculture.

The stumbling block, sceptics say, is that past HEW unmanageable thicket of warring bureaucracies and special interest groups.

How then can the President expand HEW and expect it to work?

No problem, administration spokesmen answer. HEW is a morass because it is poorly organized not because it is large, they say, and the President's management scheme would fix this.

For example, the secretary now has 24 HEW officials reporting directly to him. Under the reorganization plan, the number would be nine.

Here are some details of the human resources proposal in a question and answer format. The answers are compiled from various statements of administration officials.

Q. What major programs from other agencies would be added to HEW?

A. Alcoholism, family planning, drug rehabilitation, migrants and nutrition programs from the Office of Economic Opportunity; manpower training and unemployment insurance from the Labor Department; nutrition services and meat and poultry inspection from the Agriculture Department.

Q. What would this accomplish?

A. Unification of all government programs "directed at the development and well-being of individuals and families," cut down the fragmentation and overlapping of various federal programs.

Q. What are examples of how this unification will cut waste?

A. Transfer of manpower programs will prevent repetition of the recent construction of two federal job training centers three blocks apart in the same city, one funded by the Labor Department and the other by

Try to Block Negro Housing Project Fails

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court rejected today an attempt by city officials in Lackawanna, N.Y., to block construction of a Negro housing subdivision in an almost exclusively white neighborhood.

The unanimous action indicates local governments everywhere will have legal difficulty if they try to zone out Negroes from white areas.

The test case involved Kennedy Park Homes, a project sponsored by Lackawanna Negroes, and rulings by two federal courts that ordered local officials not to stand in its way.

The city claimed sewage facilities were inadequate in the area and the land was needed for a park.

The appeal sought at least a Supreme Court hearing on two points: whether city officials were violating the Negroes' rights and whether the federal judge overseeing the case exceeded his power.

The appeal was rejected without comment.

This means Lackawanna officials must prepare adequate sewage service to the area designated for the Negroes' homes and that the city cannot turn the area into a park.

This order was issued last August by U.S. Dist. Judge John T. Curtin of Buffalo and was supported last December by the U.S. Circuit Court in New York City in an opinion written by former Justice Tom C. Clark.

Clark, who has filled in on various federal courts since retiring from the Supreme Court, said "racial motivation resulting in invidious discrimination guided the actions of the city."

Printed by Offset

HEW. Unification of food programs will end the practice of separate inspectors from the Food and Drug Administration and the Agriculture Department checking the same plants for different possible violations.

Q. What are some other advantages of the new department?

A. Programs would be grouped by their intended function, not by the interest group served. For example, there would just be health programs, not health programs for migrant workers, welfare recipients and the like. Various programs designed to ready welfare recipients for work, such as training, child care, and health, could be better focused.

Q. What would be the broad groupings of programs in the new department? A. Income security, health, and human development. Q. Take them one at a time and explain what would be in each? A. The Health Administration would have research programs such as the national institutes, service programs such as Indian health and mental health grants, and protection programs grouped in the Food and Drug Administration. The Income Security Administration would handle payments for all government social insurance programs, such as Social Security, Medicare, unemployment benefits, and for all assistance programs such as welfare, food stamps, Medicaid and commodity distribution.

Traffic Judge Is Sold on Antabuse
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock Traffic Judge William R. Butler is curing habitual drinkers with drugs. Butler says the program of giving the drug antabuse to drunks who appear regularly in court has "had almost 100 per cent success."

Butler said more than 60 persons have been put on the program since it was initiated 13 months ago and that only four have dropped out. He says none of those who remained had been back in court for either drinking or other problems.

If a person taking antabuse consumes an alcoholic drink, he becomes violently ill.

Butler says persons who appear in his court three or four times and ask for help are told about the program.

"If they want to volunteer for it, they can," he said. "I will give them the maximum fine under the law, but tell them I will suspend it all upon completion of the program."

"Fining them or putting them in jail doesn't solve the problem," Butler said.

He says a person requesting admission to the program's counseling by Dr. R. W. McNichol, clinical director of Alcoholism Treatment Services at the Arkansas Rehabilitation Service at Benton. If Dr. McNichol feels a person can take antabuse from a physical and mental point of view, he prescribes the drug. Butler said the defendant brings the tablets to the Municipal Court clerk and the clerk does out the tablets daily.

"When people have to come to the clerk's office to get the tablet, I know they have taken it," Butler said.

Completion of the program means taking the tablets for a year. Butler says that if a person falls off the program, "I've indicated what I'll do, and I have them picked up."

Mrs. Avonell Boyce, a Municipal Court clerk who dispenses the tablets, believes in the program.

"One man on the program used to show me how much money he was making since he had been able to quit drinking," she said.

"He said that always before, he had spent all the money he made on wine or cheap whiskey."

Says Arkansas Legislature to Be Haunted
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Walter Carruth of Lexa, the 1970 gubernatorial nominee of the American party in Arkansas, says the 1971 session of the state legislature has "created a situation that will haunt them in the very near future."

Carruth made the remarks Saturday at a news conference. He said legislation that ended the American party's legal status in the state would not hamper the party's efforts to run candidates for political office in 1972 if the party decides to do so. Carruth said the party would have no trouble getting the number of signatures required for it to become legal again.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

America's Sturdy Staff of Life

U.S. Bread: A Lot Going for It

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I was surprised recently to have you recommend the purchase of bread as the only satisfactory bakery product on the market today. Yet the enclosed article says the nutritive value of bread and other bakery products is practically nil. What can we do to get better flour? I bake my own bread but am obliged to use the available flour, which is poor. Any ideas?

Dear Reader—I read your enclosure, including the underlined quote from President Nixon's French-born nutrition adviser: "Dr. Jean Mayer thinks that American's white bleached dough products would not even be called bread in his native land. Their food value is almost zero. White flour is preferred by food industry executives because it keeps on the shelf longer than the more nutritious whole wheat bread and because insects avoid it—it doesn't have enough food value to keep them alive."

That is a pretty harsh indictment of our bread and I'd like to say a few good things about it. Most white bread is low in fat and many bakeries now use nonfat milk solids. Many other bakery products contain lard, saturated fats, coconut oil, egg yolks and things that should be restricted in amount in a diet to prevent heart and artery disease. You can also buy bread enriched with butter, egg yolks and items that you should try to avoid.

I have read a lot of comments about how poor American bread is. Well, there are very few food products that provide a balanced diet by themselves.

Please send your questions and comments to Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Lamb cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Bread certainly has calories and the enriched white bread is loaded with Vitamin B complex. According to the U.S. Agriculture Department, American white bread has just as many of these elements as that nostalgic "French Bread." Our enriched American white bread has up to twice as much calcium and contains more phosphorus and iron. It also has about the same food value as whole wheat bread. Those, ma'am, are the facts. Some people may prefer the taste of French bread and that is their privilege but facts are facts.

It seems to be popular to knock anything that is American, from bread to wine, but neither need take a back seat.

You should use enriched flour if you do your own baking. And you can increase the calcium by using larger amounts of nonfat dry milk. Calcium is very important to help prevent decalcification of the spine that occurs so often after the menopause.

If you want to be a real health faddist, you might go to a health food store and buy some natural milled flour, just as nature intended it to be, ground husk and all, but it may not contain as many vitamins as your white bread.

I do recommend you make your own rolls and biscuits since most commercial products contain too much saturated fat.

Oswald: "Take a look at the West hand. South has reached three no-trump after the Lawrence Welk bidding sequence of 'a-one, a-two, a-three'."

Jim: "You have to make a blind lead. You feel if you find the right one you will beat the contract. The general rule is to attack one of the major suits and you hold four cards in each. Which suit should you pick?"

Oswald: "This time the winning lead is the four of hearts. You hit your partner with the ace and wind up with three heart tricks and your two side aces."

Jim: "It is also the best lead from a percentage standpoint. In general you want to play a suit in which you can establish the greatest number of tricks."

Oswald: "You start with one sure trick in spades and no sure tricks in hearts. So you can establish one more trick in hearts than you can in spades."

Jim: "Of course the heart lead won't be the winner every time. It is possible to set up hands where the heart lead will give South his contract and the spade lead will defeat declarer. However, we can assure you that year in and year out the heart lead will work out better."

This time is, of course, an extreme case. If the spade is opened South will make at least four no-trump and may even limp home with five if the defense lets an ace go to sleep."

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The bobcat, also called wildcat, is a small lynx native to most parts of the United States. The bobcat is a nocturnal predator whose name is derived from its short bobtail. The World Almanac says. Though a medium-sized member of the cat family, it becomes a fierce fighter when cornered.

NOW COLLECT "EXTRA CASH" FOR BEING IN THE HOSPITAL for a covered sickness or accident

YES! "EXTRA CASH" PAID DIRECT TO YOU!

- "EXTRA CASH" THAT'S ALL 100% TAX FREE!
- "EXTRA CASH" TO SPEND AS YOU PLEASE!
- "EXTRA CASH" OVER AND ABOVE ANY OTHER HOSPITAL INSURANCE, EVEN MEDICARE!

Think of it. Now, with a stroke of your pen, you can have tax-free, expense-free extra cash paid direct to you when a sudden accident or unexpected illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family! And you may enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period without having to see a company representative and without any red tape whatsoever. All you need do is mail the Enrollment Form below together with just $1 before the expiration date. It's that easy!

Why You Need Extra Cash

In Addition To Ordinary Hospital Insurance

Anyone who has been in the hospital recently knows ordinary hospital insurance—even Medicare—simply will not cover everything. You have to pay many "extras" out of your own pocket—and it can add up to hundreds of dollars in a frighteningly short time. But even if your ordinary hospital insurance covers most of your medical and hospital bills, what about the bills that keep piling up at home?

If you, as husband, father and breadwinner are suddenly hospitalized, your income stops, your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of "salary insurance" it probably won't come close to replacing your full-time pay.

If your wife is suddenly hospitalized, who will look after the family, do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? You may have to take time off from your job—or hire full-time domestic help—to take care of things at home.

If one of your children is suddenly hospitalized, you will certainly spare no expense. You wouldn't even think of the cost.

If you're over 65 and are suddenly hospitalized, Medicare, fine as it is, won't pay all of your hospital expenses or any household expenses. Most senior citizens won't want to use up savings it may have taken a lifetime to accumulate... they want to retain their independence and not become a "burden" to their children or community.

Without "extra cash" protection, a hospital emergency may leave you with savings gone, debts you can't pay, peace of mind shattered—even your recovery can be seriously delayed by money worries!

How The Plan Protects You And Your Family

Now, with the unique "extra cash" protection of The Doctors Hospital Plan you can avoid these worries because you can be assured of extra cash income when you or any covered member of your family goes to the hospital. No matter how large your family, no matter what your age or occupation and without any qualifications whatsoever, you can choose any of the four low-cost plans shown at right to meet your family's special needs.

In addition to the "extra cash" hospital benefits, you get all these valuable "extra" features:

Your "Health-Bank Account" Grows Each Month

Here's a wonderful benefit, no matter which plan you choose—almost like having an extra "Bank Account." When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account."

Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum! When you have claims, your benefits are subtracted from your "account." It's much like putting money in and taking it out of a bank account.

Enjoy Life-Long Security

For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal or modify all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.

You May Actually Come Out "Money Ahead"

Because The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any other company's health insurance you carry—individual, group or even Medicare—and because all your extra cash benefits are tax-free, you may leave the hospital many dollars ahead... money you don't have to account for to anyone. Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

Enroll For Only $1

Regardless of your age, the size of your family, or the plan you select, you get your first month for only $1.00. If you choose the All-Family Plan—all your eligible children (including future additions) are included at no extra cost. (See box at right for low rates.)

Extra Cash Protection At Surprisingly Low Cost

How can a hospital plan offer so much for so little? The answer is simple: We have lower total sales costs. The Doctors Hospital Plan is a mass enrollment plan. All business is conducted between you and the company by mail. No salesmen will call. It all adds up to real savings we share with you by giving you high quality protection at low cost.

Why is The Doctors Hospital Plan almost like having an extra "bank account"?

When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account." Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum. When you have claims, benefits are subtracted from your "account!"

Will my claims be handled promptly?

Yes. With your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. Your claims will be processed quickly and your checks sent directly to you.

Why are the premiums so low?

With The Doctors Hospital Plan, you actually get all these benefits—at such a low cost—because this is a mass enrollment plan—and no salesmen will call. Our volume is higher and our total sales costs are lower.

How much does my first month cost?

Only $1.00, regardless of your age, the size of your family or the plan you select. After the first month, if you are under 65, you pay only these low monthly rates: only $7.95 a month for the ALL-FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN; only $3.95 a month for the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN; only $1.95 a month for the INDIVIDUAL PLAN. (When you are over 65, premiums increase. See modest increase in box above.)

Why should I enroll right now?

Because an unexpected sickness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.

You pay only $6.45 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

INDIVIDUAL PLAN $5,000 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized.

If you are living by yourself, or if you wish to cover only yourself or one family member, choose the Individual Plan.

You pay only $3.95 monthly and you get your first month for only $1.00!

On all plans, your "extra cash" benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

Naturally The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover any new accident or sickness. New accidents are covered immediately. After your policy is 30 days old, you are covered for new sicknesses which begin thereafter. There are only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof

(unless you have the All-Family Plan or the Husband-Wife Plan, each of which covers maternity after the policy is in force for 10 months), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or conditions covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

You are free to go to any lawfully operated hospital of your own choice, with these exceptions only: nursing homes; convalescent, extended-care, or self-care units of hospitals; or Federal hospitals.

SPECIAL EXTRA BENEFITS!

Whichever plan you choose, you get:
50% INCREASE IN YOUR CASH BENEFITS...if you or any member of your family is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

If you choose the All-Family Plan or the Husband-Wife Plan, you get in addition:

DOUBLE CASH BENEFITS if both you and your wife are injured and hospitalized at the same time: You get twice the amount—$350 A WEEK!

Important: Here is another real "plus"—if you have been told that anyone in your family is "uninsurable"! Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past—ailments that come back again and again, or are likely to recur—you will be covered for these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for one year!

IF YOU ARE OVER 65

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses it will not cover all of your needs. During this limited enrollment, you can get the extra cash protection needed during the high-risk senior years without any qualifications just by using the form below!

It's a fact that people over 65 go to hospitals more often and have larger hospital bills. That's exactly why they need extra cash protection! And that's why some hospital plans won't accept them or charge rates beyond their means. But The Doctors Hospital Plan not only accepts you regardless of age, it gives you easy-to-carry protection that is within your means. If you are over 65 now, or when you become 65, the following modest monthly additional rate applies:

Female on All-Family or Husband-Wife Plan	$2.50
Female on One-Parent Family or Individual Plan	3.50
Male on any Plan	3.50

son whatsoever you change your mind you may return your policy within 10 days and we will promptly refund your dollar.

IMPORTANT: We can only accept your enrollment if it is postmarked on or before the date shown below. But please don't wait until the last moment. The sooner we receive your form, the sooner The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover you. You risk nothing by acting promptly. You may lose hundreds of dollars in "extra cash" benefits through needless delays. Mail your enrollment form today!

19 Important Questions Answered

ABOUT THE NEW DOCTORS HOSPITAL PLAN

1. What Is The Doctors Hospital Plan?

The Doctors Hospital Plan is a brand-new, low-cost health protection plan—that pays extra cash direct to you when a covered accident or illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family.

2. Why do I need The Doctors Hospital Plan in addition to my regular insurance?

Probably your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital expenses, but even if it does, you will still need help to cover all your household expenses when you are hospitalized.

3. Can I collect even if I carry other health insurance?

Yes. The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any health insurance you carry, whether individual or group—even in addition to Medicare! And all your benefits are tax-free! Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?

None at all. Your only qualification is to complete and mail your Enrollment Form by the deadline date shown.

5. Which plan should I choose?

You may choose any of four low-cost plans—you can actually select the exact plan that suits you best!

If yours is a young, growing family, we recommend the ALL-FAMILY PLAN. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. All your children (and future additions) between 3 months and under 21 are included, at no extra cost, as long as they are unmarried and live at home.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21.

If you have no children as yet, or if you have children who are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN.

Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.

6. If I become hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?

On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day of covered hospital confinement, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you choose.

7. How much can I be paid?

Each plan has its own "Aggregate of Benefits," what we call the maximum.

For example, under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $10,000—$100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash income for you; $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife; $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

Under the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for you; $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for your wife.

Under the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for you; $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for your wife.

Under the INDIVIDUAL PLAN, the maximum is $5,000—$50 a week ($7.14 a day) for you.

8. Are any additional benefits included in The Doctors Hospital Plan?

Yes. You receive a 50% increase in cash benefits if you or any covered family member is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

9. What are the "double" cash benefits?

If you and your wife are both injured and hospitalized at the same time and are covered by the ALL-FAMILY PLAN or the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, you get double cash benefits. You get twice the amount—$350 A WEEK!

10. Does this plan pay in any hospital?

You will be covered in any lawfully operated hospital except nursing homes; convalescent, extended-care, or self-care units of hospitals; or Federal hospitals.

11. When does my policy go into force?

It becomes effective the very same day we receive your Enrollment Form. New accidents are covered on that date. After your policy is 30 days old, new sicknesses which begin thereafter are covered. Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN and the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, childbirth or pregnancy or any consequence thereof is covered after your policy is in force for 10 months.

12. What if someone in my family has had a health problem that may occur again?

Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past, pre-existing conditions are covered after the policy has been in force for one year.

13. What conditions aren't covered?

Only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the ALL-FAMILY PLAN or the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN), war,
